HAPPY CHRISTMAS TO ALL OUR GUESTS

WELCOME TO OUR 2016 EDITION OF LE NOUVEAU BULLETIN!

Where has this year gone? It seems only yesterday we were writing the 2015 Newsletter and celebrating the TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence. 2016 has been equally as successful.

2017 is already looking brilliant with an exceptionally large number of bookings already made by both new guests and those who have been before.

If you are looking to book for 2017 we are currently offering a 10% discount on bookings between 25 March and 24 June. Our website now has the facility to check availability and book directly online and payment by debit and credit cards.

Sunshine, relaxation and fond memories of Cussay!

As usual there was some maintenance to be done. It was time for some tree pruning near the electricity cable. It was Jason up the trees, not Ian, and he was securely harnessed.

Ian continued renovating the building walls, this year concentrating on the lodement wall at the entrance.

Lorna Webber produced this superb painting during her stay in July. Thank you Lorna. The artistic skills of our guests never ceases to amaze us.

This pine marten was enjoying the plums on the fruit trees in our garden. It has taken a number of years to identify the thief! In September we also saw a group of 6 young sanglier (wild boar) sauntering across our garden and behind the pool totally oblivious of Ian working close by.

The annual vintage car rally at Lesigny is always a good visit. This year we participated with friends in the drive around local countryside. French conviviality at its best.

The August Comice D'Agricole was held in Montresor this year with the procession taking place on the river. Quite a change from normal.

The number and variety of chateaux is astounding. We are always looking for somewhere different and this year stumbled across the small, privately owned Chateau de l'Islette near Azay le Rideau. It is lived in by the owners and the family often do the guided tours. With its well maintained gardens and tea-room this is a chateau that is well worth a visit.
